Call for Nominations for Editor

of the Journal of The Electrochemical Society

The Electrochemical Society (ECS) is seeking to fill the position of Editor of the Journal of The Electrochemical Society (JES). JES is the premier journal in the international field of electrochemical and solid state science and technology and is the cornerstone publication of the Society. Along with Electrochemical and Solid-State Letters and ECS Transactions, JES provides unparalleled opportunity to disseminate basic research and technology results in electrochemical and solid state science. JES is published monthly in both paper and in electronic formats.

Nominees must have qualities of leadership, technical breadth, creativity, motivation, and international reputation and should be able to commit the necessary time. The Editor of the Journal of The Electrochemical Society will be responsible for the technical content, quality, and editorial operations of JES. The Editor oversees and participates in the review and disposition of manuscripts and appoints associate editors of JES. In addition the Editor is responsible for interfacing with the Society publications staff, Society officers, and the Editorial Board on production issues, budget, and editorial policies. A yearly honorarium is offered by the Society.

The Editor serves at the pleasure of the Publication Committee for a five-year term. The Search Committee will recommend a name for approval by the Publication Committee. If approved, the name will be recommended to the Board of Directors for approval at the Society's spring meeting in Chicago, IL, in May 2007.

In addition to self-nominations, ECS members are encouraged to submit names of other possible candidates. Those interested should indicate their qualifications for the position and send a one-page resume and cover letter stating why they are interested in the position, their previous experience with publications, and the availability of their time to fulfill the duties of this position. The material should be sent to the Chair of the JES Editor Search Committee.

Send all suggestions and nominations, preferably in electronic form,
no later than March 1, 2007 to:
