AWARDS

The J. B. Wagner, Jr. Young Investigator Award

The J. B. Wagner, Jr. Young Investigator Award— Prof. J. B. Wagner (right) presented the award to Suzanne Mohney this past October at the ECS Meeting in Hawaii. The High Temperature Materials Division has established this award to recognize a young member of the Society who has demonstrated exceptional promise for a successful career in science and/or technology in the field of high temperature materials.

Call for Nominations

Edward Goodrich Acheson Award

Nominations are solicited for the 2000 Edward Goodrich Acheson Award, to be presented at the 2000 Fall Meeting in Phoenix, Arizona. This award, established in 1928, recognizes a person who has made contributions to the advancement of any of the Society's objectives, purposes, or activities as to merit special notice. Such contributions may consist of, but are not limited to, a discovery pertaining to electrochemistry, electrometallurgy, or electrothermics; an invention of a plan, process, or device, or research evidenced by a paper embodying information useful, valuable, or significant in the theory or practice of electrochemistry, electrometallurgy, or electrothermics; or distinguished service rendered to the Society.

This award consists of a gold medal, a wall plaque, and $10,000. Please send nominations with supporting documents before March 1, 2000 to: James McBreen, Brookhaven National Laboratory, DAS, Bldg. 480, P.O. Box 5000, Upton, NY 11973-5000, tel: 516.344.4513, fax: 516.344.4071, e-mail: jmcbreen@bnl.gov.

The Electrochemical Society Fellows

Nominations are now being accepted for the 2000 Class of Fellows of The Electrochemical Society. Selection as a Fellow is one of the highest honors bestowed on a member of the Society, acknowledging that the recipient is distinguished by outstanding contributions to the advancement of science and technology in the areas of electrochemistry and/or solid-state sciences, leadership in the advancement of electrochemical or solid-state science and technology, and current active participation in the Society's affairs. All members are urged to give serious consideration to nominating possible candidates.

Those candidates selected as Fellows will be recognized by the awarding of a certificate and a lapel pin at the Honors and Awards Session at the 2000 Fall Meeting of the Society, announcement in Interface, listing as a Fellow when an author of a Journal or Letters article, and notation on the identification badge at Society Meetings. Fellows are elected at a rate of up to 20 per year. Deadline for submission of candidates is January 15, 2000.

For more information or for nomination forms, please contact: ECS Headquarters or Dr. Barry R. MacDougall, National Research Council, Inst. for Environmental Chemistry, Ottawa, ON, Canada K1A 0R6, tel: 613.993.8573, fax: 613.941.2529, e-mail: barry.macdougall@nrc.ca.

Solid-State Science and Technology Award

One of the Society's most prestigious Awards, the Solid-State Science and Technology Award honors an individual who has made distinguished contributions to the field of solid-state science and technology.

This award, consisting of a silver medal, a wall plaque, and $7,500, will next be presented at the Spring 2001 Meeting in Washington, DC, at which the winner must deliver an address to the Society on a subject related to the contributions for which the Award is presented.

As this is one of the Society's highest honors, all members are urged to give serious consideration to possible candidates. To suggest or nominate a candidate, please contact the chairman of the award subcommittee: Janet L. Benton, Bell Labs - Lucent Technologies, Rm. 1E430, P. O. Box 636, New Providence, NJ 07974-0636, tel: 908.582.3643; fax: 908.582.4228; e-mail: jlb@bell-labs.com. Nomination forms are also available from Society Headquarters. If more information is needed for consideration, the nominator will be contacted. Please submit all nominations by March 1, 2000 to facilitate consideration by the committee. Nominations close at the beginning of the Spring 2000 Meeting of the Society.

H. H. Uhlig Award of the Corrosion Division

The H. H. Uhlig Award of the Corrosion Division, previously known as the Outstanding Achievement Award, was established by the Society's Corosion Division to recognize excellence in corrosion research and outstanding technical contributions to the field of corrosion science. The 2001 award will be presented at the Fall Society Meeting in San Francisco, California, USA.

The recipient of this award will receive a scroll and $1,500 and will be required to attend the Society Meeting at which the award is given and to present an award lecture to the Corrosion Division. If necessary, financial assistance for travel expenses to the Meeting will also be made.

All nominations must be accompanied by supporting documents, such as a biography, list of publications, professional activities, and a brief summary of the outstanding contributions on which the award is to be based. Five (5) copies of each nomination with supporting documents should be submitted to the award committee chairman: Hugh Isaacs, Brookhaven National Laboratory, DAS, Bldg 480, P.O. Box 5000, Upton, NY 11973-5000, tel: 516.344.4516, fax: 516.344.4071. The deadline for receipt of nominations is March 1, 2000.

Battery Division Research Award

Members of The Electrochemical Society are invited to nominate candidates for the Research Award of the Battery Division. The award recognizes outstanding contributions to the science and technology of primary and secondary cells and batteries, and fuel cells. Of particular interest are advances in the understanding of mechanisms, introduction of a new theory, and development of new materials.

The award consists of a check for $1,000, lifetime membership in the Battery Division, and a scroll describing the award.

Nominations, in the form of a letter detailing the accomplishments of the nominee(s), should be submitted to the Chairman of the Research Award Committee before March 15, 2000: K. M. Abraham, Covalent Associates, 10 State Street, Woburn, MA 01801; tel: 781.938.1140, fax: 781.938.1364. The letter should be accompanied by a list of all supporting publications, at least one of which must have appeared in the Journal or another Society publication.

Battery Division Technology Award

Members of the Society are invited to nominate candidates for the Technology Award of the Battery Division. The award honors members of the Society who have made noteworthy practical contributions to battery and/or fuel cell technology. Their contributions may consist of novel/practical designs, the development of new or established systems with improved performance or safety, improved manufacturing methods, or improvements in the environmental aspects of battery/fuel cell technologies.

The award consists of a check for $1,000, lifetime membership in the Battery Division, and a scroll describing the award.

Please send the name(s) of your suggested candidate(s) to the Technology Award Committee Chairman: Dr. Arabinda Dey, 39 Poko Place, Hilo, HI 96720; tel/fax: 808.934.8580. Your letter should indicate the technological contributions of the candidate(s) accompanied by a list of relevant publications, with subject titles. At least one of these papers should have appeared in a publication of the Society. Deadline for application is March 15, 1999.

Electrodeposition Division Research Award

The Research Award of the Electrodeposition Division, presented annually, recognizes recent outstanding achievement or contribution in the field of electrodeposition. The award, consisting of a scroll and $2,000, will be given to the author or co-authors who have published a paper or papers in one of the Society's publications at the Fall 2000 Society Meeting in Hawaii.

Please submit nominations in a letter detailing the accomplishments of the nominee accompanied by a list of supporting publications with titles to: Rene Winard, Universite Libre de Bruxelles, Department of Metallurgy-Electrochimie-CP 165/71, 50 Ave. F. D. Roosevelt, 1050 Bruxelles, Belgium; tel: 322.653.3022. The nomination deadline is April 1, 2000.

The European Local Section Volta Award

Nominations are invited for the Alessandro Volta Medal, an award to recognize outstanding contributions in electrochemistry and solid-state chemistry and technology in Europe. The award consists of a silver medal, a scroll, and a check for $500. The recipient will be required to attend a European Local Section sponsored meeting, at which the award will be presented, and deliver a lecture on a subject related to the contribution for which the award has been granted. Nomination forms may be obtained from ECS Headquarters or the award chairman. Nominations should be submitted to: Professor B. Scrosati by March 2000, at: Department of Chemistry, University "La Sapienza," Piazza A. Moro 5, 00185 Rome, Italy; tel: +39-06-4462866, fax: +39-06-491769 e-mail: scrosati@axrma.uniroma1.it.

Chemical Heritage Foundation Offers Summer Fellowships

The Chemical Heritage Foundation (CHF) invites applications for two summer fellowships to support scholars in residence. The Société de Chimie Industrielle (American Section) Fellowship seeks to stimulate public understanding of the chemical industries. Applications are encouraged from writers, journalists, educators, and historians of science, technology, and business. The Glenn E. and Barbara Hodsdon Ullyot Scholarship supports advancement of the public understanding of the importance of the chemical sciences and industries to the public welfare. Applications are encouraged from scholars, educators, and science writers. Applications are due February 15, 2000. For details on the application procedure, please contact Leo Slater, Director of Historical Services, Chemical Heritage Foundation, 315 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, PA 19106-2702, USA; tel. 215.873.8224, ax 215.925.1954, e-mail: lslater@ chemheritage.org. The Electrochemical Society is an Affiliated Society of the Foundation.
