ECS Awarded Membership Application

ECS Divisions are offering Awarded Student Memberships to qualified full time students. To be eligible, students must be in their final two years of an undergraduate program or be enrolled in a graduate program in science, engineering, or education (with a science or engineering degree). Postdoctoral students are not eligible. Awarded memberships are renewable for up to four years; applicants must reapply each year. Memberships include article pack access to the Journal of The Electrochemical Society online, Electrochemical and Solid-State Letters online, ECS Transactions online, and a subscription to Interface.
