

AWARDS

Edward Goodrich Acheson Award

Nominations are solicited for the 1998 Edward Goodrich Acheson Award, to be presented at the 1998 Fall Meeting in Boston, Massachusetts. This award, established in 1928, recognizes a person who, in the judgment of the Directors of the Society, has made contributions to the advancement of any of the Society's objectives, purposes, or activities as to merit special notice. Such contributions may consist of, but are not limited to, a discovery pertaining to electrochemistry, electrometallurgy, or electrothermics; an invention of a plan, process, or device, or research evidenced by a paper embodying information useful, valuable, or significant in the theory or practice of electrochemistry, electrometallurgy, or electrothermics; or distinguished service rendered to the Society.

This award, which consists of a gold medal, a bronze replica, and $7,500, is open to both members and nonmembers. Please send nominations with supporting documents before March 1, 1998 to: James McBreen, Brookhaven National Laboratory, DAS, Bldg. 480, P.O. Box 5000, Upton, NY 11973-5000.

Electrochemical Society Fellow

Nominations are now being accepted for the 1998 Class of Fellows of The Electrochemical Society. Selection as a Fellow is one of the highest honors bestowed on a member of the Society.

It acknowledges that the recipient is distinguished by outstanding contributions to the advancement of science and technology in the areas of electrochemistry and/or solid-state sciences, leadership in the advancement of electrochemical or solid-state science and technology, and current active participation in the Society's affairs. All members are urged to give serious consideration to nominating possible candidates.

Those candidates selected as Fellows will be recognized by the awarding of a certificate and a lapel pin at the Society Awards and Recognition Session at the 1998 Fall Meeting of the Society, announcement in Interface, listing as a Fellow when an author of a Journal article, and notation on the identification badge at Society Meetings. Fellows are elected at a rate of up to 20 per year. Deadline for submission of candidates is January 15, 1998.

For more information or for nomination forms, please contact the Subcommittee Chairman: Dr. Barry R. MacDougall, National Research Council, Inst. for Environmental Chemistry, Ottawa, ON, Canada K1A 0R6, phone: (613) 993-8573, fax: (613) 941-2529, e-mail: barry.macdougall@nrc.ca, or the Electrochemical Society Headquarters in Pennington.

Solid-State Science and Technology Award

One of the Society's most prestigious Awards, the Solid-State Science and Technology Award, honors an individual who has made distinguished contributions to the field of solid-state science and technology.

This Award, consisting of a silver medal, a bronze replica, and $5,000, will next be presented at the Spring 1999 Meeting in Seattle, Washington, at which the winner must deliver an address to the Society on a subject related to the contributions for which the Award is presented.

As this is one of the Society's highest honors, we urge all members to give serious consideration to possible candidates. To suggest or nominate a candidate, please contact the Chairman of the Award Subcommittee: T.D. Moustakas, Dept. of Electrical Engineering, Boston University, 44 Cummington St., Boston, MA 02215, phone: (617) 353-5431, fax: (617) 353-6440, e-mail: tdm@enga.bu.edu. Nomination forms are also available from Society Headquarters. If more information is needed for consideration, the nominator will be contacted. Please submit all nominations by March 1, 1998 to facilitate consideration by the Committee. Nominations close at the beginning of the Spring 1998 Meeting of the Society.

Battery Research Award

Members of the Society are invited to nominate candidates for the Research Award of the Battery Division. The Award recognizes outstanding contributions to the science and technology of primary and secondary cells and batteries, and fuel cells. Of particular interest are advances in the understanding of mechanisms, introduction of a new theory, and development of new materials.

The Award consists of a check for $1,000, lifetime membership in the Battery Division, and a scroll describing the Award.

Nominations, in the form of a letter detailing the accomplishments of the nominee(s), should be submitted to the Chairman of the Research Award Committee: K. M. Abraham, Covalent Associates, 10 State Street, Woburn, MA 01801, phone: (617) 938-1140, fax: (617) 938-1364, before March 15, 1997. The letter should be accompanied by a list of all supporting publications, at least one of which must have appeared in the Journal or another Society publication.

Battery Technology Award

Members of the Society are invited to nominate candidates for the Technology Award of the Battery Division. The Award honors members of the Society who have made noteworthy practical contributions to battery and/or fuel cell technology. Their contributions may consist of novel/practical designs, the development of new or established systems with improved performance or safety, improved manufacturing methods, or improvements in the environmental aspects of battery/fuel cell technologies.

The Award consists of a check for $1,000, lifetime membership in the Battery Division, and a scroll describing the Award.

Please send the name(s) of your suggested candidate(s) to the Technology Award Committee Chairman: Dr. Arabinda Dey, Arad Enterprises, Inc., P.O. Box 7118, Helo, HI 96728, phone/fax: (808) 934-8580, until March 15, 1998. After March 15 to, 17 Shanley Way, Buzzards Bay, MA 02532, phone: (508) 759-4617, fax: (508) 759-4948. Your letter should indicate the technological contributions of the candidate(s) accompanied by a list of relevant publications, with subject titles. At least one of these papers should have appeared in a publication of the Society.

H. H. Uhlig Award

The H. H. Uhlig Award of the Corrosion Division, previously known as the Outstanding Achievement Award, was established by the Society's Corrosion Division to recognize excellence in corrosion research and outstanding technical contributions to the field of corrosion science. The 1999 Award will be presented at the Fall Society Meeting in Honolulu, Hawaii.

The recipient of this award will receive a scroll and $1,500 and will be required to attend the Society Meeting at which the Award is given and to present an Award

Lecture to the Corrosion Division. If necessary, financial assistance for travel expenses to the Meeting will also be made.

All nominations must be accompanied by supporting documents, such as a biography, list of publications, professional activities, and a brief summary of the outstanding contributions on which the Award is to be based. Five (5) copies of each nomination with supporting documents should be submitted to the Award Committee Chairman: Hugh Isaacs, Brookhaven National Laboratory, DAS, Bldg 480, P.O. Box 5000, Upton, NY 11973-5000, phone: (516) 344-4516, fax: (516) 344-4071. The deadline for receipt of nominations is June 1, 1998.

Research Award of the Electrodeposition Division

The Research Award of the Electrodeposition Division, presented annually, recognizes recent outstanding achievement or contribution in the field of electrodeposition. The Award, consisting of a scroll and $2,000, will be given to the author or co-authors who have published a paper or papers in one of the Society's publications.

Please submit nominations in a letter detailing the accomplishments of the nominee accompanied by a list of supporting publications with titles to: Professor Mordechai Schlesinger, Department of Physics, University of Windsor, Windsor, ON, Canada N9B 3P4, phone: (519) 253-4232, ext. 2653, fax: (519) 973-7075.

David C. Grahame

Nominations are now being accepted for the 1999 David C. Grahame Award of the Society's Physical Electrochemistry Division.

This Award recognizes Active Members of the Society who have made outstanding contributions to the field of physical electrochemistry and who have enhanced the scientific stature of the Society by the presentation of well-recognized papers in the Journal and at Society Meetings.

The recipient will receive a certificate, a stipend of $500, and, if required, financial assistance toward travel expenses to the Society Meeting at which the award is presented. The winner of this award will be required to attend the Meeting and to present an award lecture in one of the sessions or symposia sponsored by the Physical Electrochemistry Division.

To be eligible for the award, applicants must be Active Members of the Society who have published at least two papers in the Journal and have attended a Society Meeting within the past five years.

To be considered, nominations must be accompanied by supporting documents, such as a biography, list of publications, professional activities, and a brief summary of the recent outstanding contributions on which the Award is based. Letters of support by scientists well recognized in the area of physical electrochemistry will also be considered. Six copies of each nomination should be submitted to the Award Committee Chairman: John Newman, University of California, Berkeley, Department of Chemical Engineering, 201 Gilman Hall #1462, Berkeley, CA 94720-1400. Deadline for receipt of nominations is January 1, 1998. ■
