The Korean Electrochemical Society

THE KOREAN ELECTROCHEMICAL SOCIETY

KECS was founded in 1998 as a non-profit and professional organization dedicated to the advancement and development of electrochemical science and technology. As of today, the KECS consists of 8 committees, 8 divisions, 3 local branches, and an advisory council.

JKES, JECST, E.Chem

There are two journals and one magazine.

- Journal of the Korean Electrochemical Society (Since
- Journal of Electrochemical Science and Technology (Since 2010)
- E.Chem Magazine (Since 2010)

L574

Active members

Divisions

There are 8 Research Divisions in KECS.

- Physical Electrochemistry
- Biological and Analytical Electrochemistry
- Battery
- Fuel cells
- Photoelectrochemistry
- Capacitor
- Materials Electrochemistry
- Environmental and Industrial Electrochemistry

Woonsup Shin

Professor, Sogang University CEO, CareMedi, Co. Chairman, ISE 2021, Jeju Island

2 KECS-Sponsored International Meetings

PRIME2020, PRIME2016, PRIME2012, PRIME2008, ISE2021, ISE2005, ACESP-10, ACEPS-9, ACESP-6, ACEPS-3, PBFC-1, IMLB2012, IMLB2010, IBA2018, ACSSI-9, ABBA2013, ABBA2012, ACEC2010, ACEC2008, ACEC2005, ACEC2002, Australia-Korea Joint Symposium 2013, 2012, 2011, ICAC2018, ICE2005, ILABS2015, ILABS2014, ILABS2013, ILABS2012, IME-8, IPS-18

THE KOREAN
ELECTROCHEMICAL ACEPS = 3

November 19-14, 2

Opanize by The
Sponsored by
Sponsored by

KECS Meetings

Total number of abstracts: 5,783 (2011~2020) Total participants: 15,273 (2011~2020)

(KECS 2020 Spring Meeting)

Number of abstracts: 640 Number of participants: 1,306

PRiME 2016 number of participants from Korea: 569

